

Employer: Rutland Regional Medical Center

Position: Pulmonologist / Critical Care Physician

Duties: Diagnose and treat patients with diseases of the respiratory system and breathing-related conditions in both outpatient and critical inpatient settings. This specialist can treat many breathing-related conditions including asthma, cystic fibrosis, chronic obstructive pulmonary disease, lung cancer, pulmonary fibrosis, tuberculosis, and work-related lung diseases. May evaluate, treat sleep conditions, and interpret sleep studies. May interpret pulmonary function tests (PFTs). Will also provide Intensive Care Unit inpatient coverage.

Location: 160 Allen Street, Rutland, Vermont

Salary: $365,000 per year

Education: Education: M.D. (Doctor of Medicine) degree in Medicine (will accept equivalent foreign degree)

Training: Residency in Internal Medicine (36 months) and Fellowship in Pulmonary Disease (36 months).

Work Experience: None.

Other Experience: Must have completed a Residency in Internal Medicine (36 months) and Fellowship in Pulmonary Disease (36 months); a Vermont Physician's license is required.

Employer Contact: Rutland Regional Medical Center
Sarah McCuin
Physician Relations Specialist
160 Allen Street
Rutland, Vermont 05701