

NGT MECHANICS FALL INTO FOUR CATEGORIES DEPENDING UPON EXPERIENCE, TRAINING AND SKILL SET.

MECHANIC (D) - Duties include but are not limited to:

- Perform preventative maintenance such as oil and filter change, brake adjustments and vehicle/trailer lubrication.
- Removing tires from a vehicle, dismounting, mounting, and reinstalling on assigned vehicle.
- Inspection of Wheels and Hubs, cleaning and checking wheel bearings, packing bearings with grease, installing new wheel seals, installing new brake shoes and kits.
- Fix and repair lights and wiring, complete rewiring of trailers, remove and replace starters, alternators and batteries.
- Minor torching and welding work as assigned.
- Knowledge of all parts of a suspension system and how to repair and replace them as needed.
- General work area clean up, sweeping floor, keeping benches clean, trash and waste removal.
- Proper disposal of waste oil
- All other duties as assigned

MECHANIC (C) - Duties include but are not limited to:

- Skilled and competent in all duties described above under the MECHANIC (D) classification.
- Removal, repair and replace rear ends, transmissions, and clutches of a CMV.
- Skilled in the proper use of the A/C machine.
- Ability to check, test, and repair electrical systems and batteries.
- Trained in proper maintenance & repair of suspension systems, airbags, leveling valves, leaf springs, torque arms and equalizers.
- Ability to install, maintain, diagnose & repair Tri Pac Generator systems.
- Ability to install, maintain, diagnose & repair Hydraulic Wet systems.
- Skilled and certified to perform visual and leakage tests on propane tank trailers.
- General work area clean up, sweeping floor, keeping benches clean, trash and waste removal. Proper disposal of waste oil.
- All other duties as assigned.

MECHANIC (B) - Duties include but are not limited to:

- Skilled and competent in all duties described above under the MECHANIC (D) and MECHANIC (C) classification.
- Skilled and competent in the installation, maintenance, diagnosis, and repair of CMV clutch systems.
- Skilled and competent in using A/C recovery and charge machine, servicing and changing components of the A/C system. :
- Skilled and competent in performing vehicle alignments using laser alignment equipment and tire balancing systems.
- Skilled and competent in the installation, maintenance, diagnostics and repairing of air brake systems.
- Ability to indemnify driveline problems, proper diagnostics and repair of drivelines.
- Displays a high level of skill in diagnostics and repair of internal and external engine problems, including complete rebuilds and valve adjustments.
- Ability to properly use torches, ban saw and welders to perform both major and minor fabrication projects.
- General work area clean up, sweeping floor, keeping benches clean, trash and waste removal. Proper disposal of waste oil.

- All other duties as assigned.

MECHANIC (A) Duties include but are not limited to:

- Skilled and competent in all duties described above under the MECHANIC (D), MECHANIC (C), & MECHANIC (B) classifications.
- Have a majority of the tools necessary to perform whatever is asked of him
- Have a current Commercial Drivers License with hazmat & tanker endorsements.
- Be willing and able to fill in and drive as needed to meet the needs of the company.