Allow us to introduce ourselves...

We are a globally active family company whose sustainable and responsible actions contribute to improved living standards. We are an attractive employer with a value-oriented corporate culture based on trust, appreciation and continuous improvement.

Weidmann Electrical Technology has been at the heart of the global transformer industry for over 140 years. With deep rooted knowledge in the design, development and operation of transformers, Weidmann is a leading integrated solutions provider for specialized product and services in the energy sector.

The role... Regularly set-up and operate CNC routers to produce a wide variety of products with minimal direct supervision.

How you'll make an impact...

- Set up and operate machines using appropriate tooling and materials to produce high-quality parts efficiently
- Perform routine operator maintenance, maintain a clean workspace, and report any equipment issues to the Maintenance Department
- Inspect and verify work, maintain accurate inventory records, and ensure only compliant products are produced and shipped
- Optimize machine setup and run times to improve productivity and efficiency
- Follow all environmental, health, and safety procedures, including managing impacts such as hazardous waste and dust emissions
- Identify and report defects or process issues, support continuous improvement efforts, and take action to stop or adjust processes when results are not met

What do you bring...

- High school or trade school diploma required
- Ability to read complex blueprints, use precision measuring tools, and interpret quality and ISO documentation
- Understanding of production processes, basic programming knowledge, and troubleshooting skills
- Proficiency in basic computer systems, including timekeeping and relevant SAP functions
- Willingness to work weekends, holidays, and night shifts as needed
- Ability to operate or learn to operate equipment such as a fork truck and remote-control hoist, and meet physical job requirements
